Sammamish Seniors

Join us on Wednesday, October 27, at 11 AM for a session with a long-time Sammamish resident who is a technology instructor on PC and mobile use. Since people are likely to have a variety of questions, he would like you to email them in advance. This will give him a chance to make sure he has good answers as he may not necessarily be familiar with every subject about computers. This will be a Q&A session to help with the particular problem(s) that you are dealing with. Of course, some will be unanswerable and will require much more in-depth conversations but he will at least take care of the ones he can. For the zoom link and to submit your questions, please contact SammamishSeniors@gmail.com.

Lake Washington Schools Foundation (LWSF) welcomes students back in person and launches Fall Campaign to address specific individual and family needs throughout the district.

With community support, LWSF has helped students and families stay fed, informed, connected and mentally healthy during the pandemic. To learn more about the campaign and how to help, please click on the image!
